SEPTEMBER/OCTOBER 2015

26th ANNUAL NYC PUBLIC INTEREST RECEPTION
Thursday, September 3, from 5:30 to 8 p.m., Fordham Law School
Between 80 and 100 public service employers will be at information tables to talk with students about their work as well as future opportunities. This is a great way for first-year students to be exposed to and get excited about the range of public service work and for upper-class students to begin to think about their summer or post-graduate work!

FIRST MONDAY 2015
Monday, October ___ at 5:00 p.m.
Since 1994, we have participated in the Annual First Monday Event in collaboration with the Alliance for Justice. The event coincides with the opening of the U.S. Supreme Court term and will include a panel on a timely social justice issue (TBD) and a documentary film. At Rutgers–Newark, this event is combined
EJW CONFERENCE AND CAREER FAIR:  Friday, October 23 & Saturday, October 24
Crystal Gateway Marriott, Arlington, VA
The Equal Justice Works annual Conference and Career Fair is the largest national public interest legal career fair in the country. More than 1,200 students from 165 law schools attend for two days of interviews, workshops, networking and other career opportunities. More than 140 public interest employers conduct interviews for internship and full-time positions and meet with students in informal “table talk” settings to discuss public interest legal opportunities. The Conference and Career Fair also feature workshops on various public interest careers and job search advice, resume and cover letter review, mock interviews, and more.
